

3-Day Waikiki Plan

February 18–20, 2026 — Based in Waikiki

Day 1 — Beach + Diamond Head + Local Eats

Morning

- Diamond Head hike — go early (7-8am) before it gets hot. ~30 min up, incredible 360° views. Book reservation online
- Grab açai bowls at Playa Bowls or Egghead Café after

Afternoon

- Waikiki Beach — chill, swim, rent a board and try surfing
- Walk to Ala Moana Beach Park / Magic Island — less crowded, great swimming

Evening

- Marukame Udon — fresh udon in Waikiki, cheap and fast
- Walk the strip, check out International Market Place
- 🐋 It's whale season — you can sometimes spot humpbacks from shore at sunset

Day 2 — North Shore Day Trip

Morning (leave by 9am)

- Drive to the North Shore (~1 hr from Waikiki)
- Stop at Dole Plantation on the way (Dole Whip 🍍)

Midday

- Watch big waves at Pipeline / Sunset Beach — February is prime surf season
- The Eddie Aikau Big Wave International event window is active right now
- Shark's Cove for tide pool exploring

 Lunch

- Giovanni's Shrimp Truck in Kahuku — garlic shrimp, legendary
- Or Fumi's right next door

 Afternoon

- Walk around Haleiwa Town — surf shops, shave ice at Matsumoto's
- Drive back via the east coast for different scenery

 Dinner

- Rainbow Drive-In — loco moco or plate lunch, iconic Honolulu spot

Day 3 — Hanauma Bay + Koko Head + Last Night

 Morning

- Hanauma Bay — go at opening (6:45am), the snorkeling is unreal. Reservations required, book online tonight
- Spend 2-3 hours there

 Late Morning (optional)

- Koko Head Crater — 1,048 steps, brutal but the view is insane. Right next to Hanauma Bay

 Lunch

- Helena's Hawaiian Food — legit local Hawaiian food (poi, laulau, kalua pig)
- Or Leonard's Bakery for malasadas

Afternoon

- Manoa Falls hike — easy rainforest walk to a waterfall, 20 min from Waikiki
- Or chill at the beach one last time

Evening

- Sunset drinks at Duke's Waikiki (right on the beach)
- If it's Tuesday, free live music at Waikiki Beach Walk (Ku Ha'aheo concert series)
- Last night dinner somewhere nice on the strip

Quick Tips

- 🐳 Whale watching from shore is free — look from Makapu'u Lookout or Waikiki
- ☀ Sunscreen up — February sun still hits hard
- 🚗 Rent a car for Day 2 — North Shore by bus is painful
- 📱 Book Hanauma Bay reservations tonight at hanaumabaystatepark.com
